FRIENDS OF RI CASA MISSION STATEMENT

Friends of Rhode Island CASA, Inc., is a non-profit organization established to provide assistance to the Rhode Island State Court-Appointed Special Advocates for Children (CASA) program through fundraising activities to support CASA's recruitment, training and retention of volunteer advocates. In addition, the organization raises and administers funds for the children's Dreams Come True Fund, to provide money not otherwise available to cover fees for activities and items that support the social and educational development of children in CASA cases.
